Another question please.

I do not see in the original 2012 Water Application where aquifer tests were done on the project site by the applicant. Does your paperwork show that any has been done since then?

Thanks

The current status of the Dewey-Burdock Class V permit is still draft. We received many comments during the public comment period that we are currently reviewing. We don't have a timeframe for issuing the final permit decision, which could be to deny the permit, modify the draft permit or issue the final permit.

I am working toward posting the comments we received during the public comment period on our website. The public hearing transcripts are already available at:

<https://www.epa.gov/uic/dewey-burdock-public-hearing-transcripts>

The website for the Dewey-Burdock administrative records is:

<https://www.epa.gov/uic/epa-dewey-burdock-class-iii-and-class-v-injection-well-draft-area-permits>

I have added you to the contact list for future notification e.g. when the public comments are posted and any future EPA activities related to the Dewey-Burdock site.

Would you also please indicate the current status of the Class V permit. Is it conditionally approved per the terms of the Fact Sheets? Are there other pending issues required for its approval? Etc.

Thanks

Here is the link to the UIC permit application:

I have attached the UIC regs that I have downloaded into Word for my personal use.
They are 40 CFR 144 and 40 CFR 146.
The permitting requirements are found in 144 subpart D.
The regs covering the public participation process are found at 40 CFR Part 124.

Ok

We can certainly start that way.

Would you please send me the forms or citation to the forms and rules if they are available on the web for an application for a Class V permit in your region?
